

Derick Foster
President

Derick is Paramount Builders' founder and visionary. He thinks big and understands the big picture, in equal measure. In his day-to-day role as president and motivator-in-chief, he drives the company's operations side. His leadership, his energy, and his never-ending quest for excellence create a contagious and inspiring environment for colleagues and clients alike.

Derick is that rare combination of creative thinker and minute detailist, able to engage both sides of his brain to see the full picture from multiple perspectives. His instincts and drive provide direction to the business development and client relations team, insuring Paramount's execution and vision remain intrinsically in sync.
